Joy Zwicker is willing to stay on, but needs the support of the committee to plan the seminars. Jess Jastrzembski will check with Missy Cerrato's or another representative to come and discuss what services they provide to Seniors from their offices. Also suggested checking in with Senator Collett's office to see if they are willing to speak with the committee at a meeting later in the year.

c. Senior Table in the CRC Lobby – The committee checked on what information was in the closet that could be displayed on the table. There was limited information. It was discussed that someone be appointed once a week to check the table to see what needs to be replenished. At the February meeting, Chuck and Jess will let the committee know where the information will be housed in the recreation center.
